Oh, beautiful, for spacious skies
For amber waves of grain,

Above the fruited plains.

With brotherhood

from sea to shining sea.

Whose stem impassioned stress,

A thoroughfare for freedom beat

Across the wilderness

America, America

God mend thine ev'ry flaw,

Confirm thy soul in self-control

Thy liberty and law.

Blowin' In the Wind

How many roads must a man walk down Before they call him a man?

How many times must a white dove sail Before she sleeps in the sand?

How many times must the cannonballs fly Before they're forever banned?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind

The answer is blowin' in the wind.

How many years must some mountains exist Before they are swept to the sea?

And how many years must some people exist Before they're allowed to be free? Yes, and how many times can a man turn his head

And pretend that he just doesn't see?

Oh, the answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind

The answer is blowin' in the wind.

You wanna be where you can see our troubles are all the same.

You wanna go where people know people are all the same.

It is better to light one little candle than to stumble in the dark.
Better far that you light just one little candle.

The wonderful dawn of a new day we'd see.
And if everyone lit just one little candle what a bright world it would be.
